JUNE 2009 MORRILL MUSINGS

Message from the Director,

Charlotte Canelli

- Be sure to join the Friends of the Library—the Annual Meeting will be held on June 3, 2009 at 7:30 pm in the Simoni Room. Margot Sullivan and Beth Goldman, librarians, will present their reading suggestions!
- Watch us on Norwood Public Access TV on the "Library Show" or pick up a copy of Morrill Musings at the library or view it online and don't miss the weekly column, "From the Library," in both the Transcript and the Bulletin.

SIGN UP FOR A STARSHIP ADVENTURE AT YOUR LIBRARY

Online registration for the Massachusetts statewide summer reading program, Starship Adventure at Your Library, will begin Monday, June 8. To register, log on to the library's homepage, www.norwoodlibrary.org, then click Starship Adventure under the heading 'Kids & Teens'. Participants may start recording their books on Monday, June 15. The program will end on August 28.

Come to a free session on Job Searching for Young Professionals on Tuesday, June 2 at 7:30 p.m. presented by Dr. Mitch Bornstein of Career Treking in Wellesley. Intended for college students, recent graduates and young professionals, this overview will focus on finding the right job in a challenging market. Topics will include setting job goals and career directions, developing impressive resumes, cover letters and interviewing strategies, and conducting a successful job search. Call 781-769-0200 to register.

Stephen Collins, critically acclaimed performer of Walt Whitman and Robert Frost, will bring his talent to the library on Tuesday, June 16 at 7:30 p.m. in a new show called "A Little Bit of This—A Little Bit of That." Collins will explore the human condition through poetry, fiction and drama from writers including Shakespeare, e.e. cummings, Elizabeth Bishop, Mary Oliver, Thornton Wilder and others. Sign up at the library or call 781-769-0200 for this engaging and entertaining program.

BOSTON GLOBE FILM CRITICS ARE BACK!

Ty Burr and Wesley Morris, popular film critics from the Globe, will return to the Norwood Library on Thursday, June 11 at 7:30 p.m. The dynamic duo will talk about their jobs, how they evaluate films, their personal takes on various movies as well as the Academy Awards and the year's blockbusters—and busts. A lively Q & A session will follow. Space is limited to the first 75 people who register, so sign up early!

HOLD THAT BOOK! JULY 2009 RELEASES

Some of July's fiction blockbusters: Swan for the Money by Donna Andrews, Hot Pursuit by Suzanne Brockmann, Jericho's Fall by Stephen L. Carter, Castaways by Elin Hilderbrand, The Devil's Punchbowl by Greg Iles, Twenties Girl by Sophie Kinsella, By Heresies Distressed by David Weber, and Get Real by Donald Westlake. Some non-fiction blockbusters: Munson by Martin Appel, Threshold by Thom Hartmann, Duchess of Death by Richard Hack, Paul Harvey's America by Stephen Mansfield, The Accidental Billionaires by Ben Mezrich, and Born to Play by Dustin Pedroia with Edward Delaney.

You can reserve these books online NOW. Be sure to call the library if you need help placing requests on books—781-769-0200.

MML ADDS NEW DATABASES

Extra! Extra! Read all about it! The library has added two new databases that you can access either from the library (click Databases for Research under Web Links on the library homepage) or from home, using your Minuteman Library Network card, if you are a Norwood resident. Mango Languages teaches you everyday conversation skills in 12 different languages: Spanish, French, German, Russian, Italian, Greek, Japanese, Mandarin Chinese and Brazilian Portuguese, as well as ESL Spanish, Polish, and Brazilian Portuguese. Morningstar Investment Research Center gives you comprehensive and up-to-date financial information on stocks, mutual funds and exchange-traded funds. Definitely worth a look.
